The screenshot shows a Mendeley search results page. At the top, there are tabs for 'Documents', 'Secondary documents', and 'Patents'. The current view is 'Documents', showing 'Mendeley Data (4806)'. Below the tabs, there is a search analysis section with 'Analyze search results', 'Show all abstracts', and 'Sort on: Date (newest)'. A toolbar contains options like 'All', 'Export', 'Download', 'View citation overview', 'View cited by', 'Add to List', and icons for printing, email, and PDF. The main content is a table of search results with columns for 'Document title', 'Authors', 'Year', 'Source', and 'Cited by'. Two results are visible, each with a checkbox and options to 'View abstract', 'Request PDF', and 'Related documents'. Three callout boxes in Persian provide instructions: one points to the 'Sort on' dropdown, another to the 'Request PDF' link, and a third to the left sidebar area.
